Thursday April 7

Pray for our team's perseverance so that we might be a beacon of hope that can be found in the indwelling of the Holy Spirit in us and those we meet; as we travel another village in the area.

"Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us." Romans 5:3-5

Friday April 8

Our team splits today as the Guevara family travels to the orphanage in GC where their daughter Abi lived before she became a part of the Guevara family. The rest of the team will travel to GC via Antigua as we leave the people of Chichi. Pray for those we come in contact with that they might see in us a heart and face of compassion so they will know they are loved by God their Father. "Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience." Colossians 3:1

Saturday April 9

As we return to home, pray for safe travel and recognition that our minds and hearts have been changed by God. Additionally, pray for each of us to acknowledge God's continued molding of our heart and how we might be agents of change for God when we are home.

“Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed—in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.” 1 Corinthians 15:51-52
